

Privacy Policy

Protecting your private information is our priority. This Privacy Policy applies to www.nomad-us.com and MC Fuels Mobile, LLC (together, "MC Fuels"), governs data collection and usage on www.nomad-us.com (the "Website") and MC Fuels mobile application (the "App"), and is intended to be in compliance with the California Online Privacy Protection Act, The Children's Online Privacy Protection Act, and California Consumer Privacy Act. By using the Website and App, you consent to the data practices described in this policy.

Collection of your Personal Information

We do not collect any personal information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us. However, you may be required to provide certain personal information to us when you elect to use the products or services offered on the Website or App, such as (a) registering for an MC Fuels account; (b) signing up for special offers from us or from selected third parties; (c) sending us an email message; (d) submitting your credit card or other payment information when ordering products or services on our Website or App. We will use your information for communicating with you in relation to the products and/or services you have inquired about or requested from us.

Automatically Collected Information

Information about your computer hardware and software may be automatically collected by MC Fuels. This information may include: your IP address, location, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. This information is used for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Website and App.

Sharing Information with Third Parties

MC Fuels does not sell, rent, or lease its customer lists to third parties. MC Fuels may share data with trusted partners to help perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to you on behalf of MC Fuels, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

California law permits customers in California to request certain details about how their information is shared with third-parties, and in some cases, affiliates of those third-parties. If you are a California resident, you may email a request to contactus@nomad-us.com with "California Privacy Rights Request" in the subject and include your name, street address, city, state and zip code in the email body. Please note that we are only required to respond to one request per customer per year and we are not required to respond if requests are made by means other than through the provided email address.

MC Fuels releases account and other personal information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law; enforce or apply our Terms & Conditions and other agreements; or protect the rights, property, or safety of MC Fuels, our customers, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organizations for fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

Use of Cookies

We receive and store certain types of information automatically whenever you interact with us. For example, like many websites and mobile applications, we use "cookies" or other unique identifiers, and we obtain certain types of information when your web browser accesses our Website or App. Other examples include, but are not limited to, log files, internet protocol (IP) address used to connect your computer to the internet, and internet browser type.

The Website and App may use cookies to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is saved on your hard drive by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you; and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize MC Fuels pages, or register with MC Fuels App or services, a cookie helps MC Fuels to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same Website or App page, the information you previously provided can be retrieved so you can easily use the MC Fuels features that you customized. Cookies also allow us to maintain a record of your browsing activity on our Website.

You may accept or decline cookies and most other unique identifiers. Most web browsers and mobile applications automatically accept cookies and other unique identifiers, but you can usually modify your setting to decline these if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies and other unique identifiers, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Website or App. We do not currently support the Do Not Track browser option.

Analytics

We may use Google Analytics, a web analytics services provided by Google, Inc. Google Analytics uses cookies or other unique identifiers to help us analyze how users interact with and use the Website, compile reports on the Website's activity, and provide other services related to the Website's usage. Google Analytics may collect information such as your IP address, time of visit, whether you are a return visitor, etc. The Website does not use Google Analytics to gather information that personally identifies you. The information will be transmitted to and stored by Google and will be subject to Google's privacy policies. You can visit Google's website to learn how to opt out of their tracking analytics.

Non-Discrimination

We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your rights provided in this Privacy Policy. Unless permitted by law, we will not: (a) deny you goods or services; (b) charge you different prices or rates for goods or services including through granting discounts or other benefits or imposing penalties; (c) provide you a different level or quality of goods or services; (d) suggest that you may receive a different price or rate for goods or services or a different level or quality of goods or services.

Security of your Personal Information

MC Fuels secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. MC Fuels uses the following methods for this purpose:

- SSL Protocol
- Database and Encryption

We work to protect the security of your information by utilizing encryption methods during the transmission or storage of information you input through our Website and App. One-hundred percent
